

Contents

Executive summary	vii
About the author	xi
Part I: The Anatomy of Decision Making	1
Chapter 1: Common illusions in the decision-making process	3
Dismantling the mythology – how decision making really happens in law firms	3
Debunking decision-making myths – the reality behind the façade	3
Four illusions concealing the truth	6
Chapter 2: A true map of the decision-making journey	7
The decision-making pyramid	7
The internal conflict of partner roles	9
Who really makes decisions in a law firm	12
How decisions are made	16
Informal alliances and backroom decisions in partnerships	21
Multidimensionality – when partnerships have multiple layers	24
Partners and managers – two worlds, one decision	29
Chapter 3: External and internal forces influencing decisions	37
External pressure – when the market dictates decisions	37
Competitors – the race no one declared	42
The decision and its cost – who goes all in	49
Part II: Why Smart People Make Strange Decisions	53
Chapter 4: The psychology of how lawyers decide	55
Individual psychology and decision-making styles in partnerships	55
The myth of the rational lawyer	57

Five decision-making styles – who is who	60
What drives decisions beyond styles	77
Chapter 5: When decision making gets complicated	85
The myth of the pure type	85
The DMA Matrix – where styles collide and combine	86
Finding your own DMA	91
Chapter 6: When synergy + conflict = firm’s identity	107
Team synergy – when 1+1=5	107
When styles collide – the anatomy of partnership conflicts	111
How decision-making styles shape a firm’s identity	117
 Part III: Deconstructing the Concept of “Consensus”:
How to Achieve Genuine Buy-In, Avoiding Firm Paralysis	125
Chapter 7: The mechanics of partner buy-in	127
The cultural code of “consensus”	127
The partner hierarchy	130
The game of agreement	134
Chapter 8: What true consensus actually means	139
From Cicero to partner meetings	139
Four phases of consensus life	145
The main trap of groupthink	151
Consensus in crisis	157
TRUE consensus – a practical framework	164
 Part IV: How Law Firms Choose Their Strategy
Chapter 9: The philosophy of partnership	181
The architectural decisions that determine everything
– and whether you can change them	181
Meta-choices – the philosophy of partnership	188
Strategic positioning – who we are in the market and for whom	192
Service model – what and how we sell	205
Chapter 10: Organizational model – how the firm is built
from within	221
Partnership vs corporation – brotherhood or hierarchy?	221

Personal brands vs the corporate brand	226
Individual achievements vs team results	232
Structural constellations	238
Part V: Decision-Making Timeline	243
Chapter 11: Architectural decisions life cycle	245
Time and transformation – the map of the life cycle	245
The timeline of key decisions	249
When the system stops working	251
Chapter 12: The real time of decisions	257
When decisions should happen – and how to prepare for them	257
The decision calendar in a partnership firm	259
Decision-making matrix – who decides what and when	264
Speaking the language of decision-making styles	272
Appendices	277
Appendix 1: Complexity navigation checklist	277
Appendix 2: Decision cost calculator	279
Appendix 3: Decision maturity self-assessment	280
Appendix 4: Red flags	281
Appendix 5: The 16 types of legal decision makers	282
Appendix 6: Perfect duos and trios	284
Appendix 7: Navigating style conflicts	287
Appendix 8: Team composition optimizer	293
Appendix 9: Ten distortions of consensus	300
Appendix 10: Four phases of consensus life	302
Appendix 11: The 14 strategic dichotomies	305
Appendix 12: Architectural coherence checker	309
Appendix 13: Decision types classification matrix	312
Appendix 14: Firm lifecycle timeline	315
Appendix 15: The annual decision calendar	319
About Globe Law and Business	323