Table of contents

Introduction: Big changes at the top of big law

- 1. How high-performing law firms typically approach strategic planning and common drivers of effective plans
- 2. How high-performing firms increasingly align their approach to compensation with achieving their growth strategy.
- 3. The increasing interest in non-equity tiers
- 4. Increasing movement of groups of laterals and why some firms benefit more than others
- 5. Why more high-performing firms have put M&A on the table
- 6. Public statements and media interaction
- 7. Leadership succession planning
- 8. The evolving role of business professionals in law firms
- 9. Artificial intelligence and the legal industry