

Table of contents

Background to turnaround and the evolution of turnaround management

The Decline Curve, what to do and when; Change management, performance enhancement, turnaround or insolvency.

Warning signs and the slide into crisis; when time and money are in short supply

Crunch point; who calls the shots when liquidity has gone

Can the business be saved outside of insolvency? Basic requirements for a successful turnaround

Keeping the ship afloat; managing the immediate liquidity crisis

Assessing enterprise value and business viability

Addressing the underlying operational problems

Management credibility and stakeholder management; communicate, communicate, communicate!!

The turnaround business plan; “No hockey stick forecasts please!”

Negotiating the financial restructuring

International and cross border complexities

Exiting the leadership role

Risk and rewards

Conclusions; can debtor and creditor interests ever be properly reconciled?