

Table of contents

Preface

Part I: Introduction

1. Total rewards strategy and the future workforce: three trends shaping the future of human resources, remuneration and partner profit sharing
2. Partner compensation in context: strategy, organisational design, culture, partnership maturity, internal competitiveness and competing for talent externally
3. Three elements of any partner reward system: reward structure, contribution management, reward decision making

Part II: Reward structures in professional partnerships

4. The seven fundamental partner reward structures
5. The profit-sharing waterfall: drawings, bonuses and distributions
6. Lock-steps and other sharing systems
7. Eat-what-you-kill and other formula systems
8. Merit-based systems

9. The role of bonuses in equity partner reward systems
10. The role of goodwill, capital and dividends in partnerships
11. Marketplaces and ecosystems
12. Profit sharing as “partners” in incorporated structures: the impact of external financing, law companies and technology-intensive firms

Part III: Managing partner contribution

13. Leadership and partner contribution management: past and future; contribution frameworks
14. Understanding what motivates partners and how to lead them
15. Designing measures, metrics and KPIs
16. Designing a formal partner review process
17. Partner conversations, part 1: agreeing objectives with partners
18. Partner conversations, part 2: leading a partnership through the right ongoing conversations, creating a culture of ongoing conversations and a coaching mindset

19. Partner conversations, part 3: formal feedback and having formal review conversations with partners
20. Managing underperformance
21. Increasing effectiveness and efficiency: the role of specialist capabilities (CFO, HRD) and infrastructure (technology)

Part IV: Partner reward governance and decision making

22. Reward governance: key elements
23. Remuneration Committee: when to have one, remit, who should serve on it, roles and responsibilities
24. Remuneration Committee: managing to an annual calendar
25. Preparing for a reward round
26. Deciding on partner reward in the heat of a partner reward round: heuristics, decision aids and biases
27. Transparency and communicating reward results
28. After a reward round: the importance of reflection and self-assessment
29. Appealing Remuneration Committee decisions

Part V: Special issues

30. Democratising reward: how tokens support collaboration among partners
31. Rewarding partners in management roles
32. Diversity and inclusion
33. Size and shape of the partnership: salaried partners, fixed-share partners, of counsels, directors
34. Mergers & acquisitions and lateral hires
35. The small firm: financial realities versus personal intimacy; founder-led firms and succession planning; marrying baby-boomers with millennials; multi-generational partnerships
36. The internationalising firm: evolving global, national and local practices
37. The global firm: global compensation processes
38. Global alliances and networks
39. Effecting changes to a partner reward system: systemic change, partner involvement
40. Moving beyond effectiveness and efficiency: stress reducers and well-being enhancers

Part VI: The way ahead

41. The future: a partner remuneration system for a growing 21st century professional service firm

Appendices

- A. Self-assessment
- B. Partner compensation policy outline
- C. Sample contribution framework
- D. Sample KPIs and metrics
- E. Formal check-in checklist
- F. Informal check-in checklist
- G. Sample Remuneration
Committee calendar
- H. RemCom annual self-assessment