

Table of contents

Foreword _____	9	2. Different author types	38
1. Lawrence _____	15	3. Emotion, morality _____	39
On morality, aesthetics		and writing
and other matters		4. Pursuit of truth _____	40
1. Writing engagingly _____	15	Key propositions _____	41
2. Didacticism and the _____	17	4. Crawford _____	43
‘art’ of writing		On moralising, flippancy
3. Moralising _____	18	and other matters
4. Detachment _____	19	1. Types of text _____	43
5. Writing intelligently, _____	21	2. Purpose of text _____	44
coherently and honestly		3. Effect of writing _____	46
Key propositions _____	23	4. Moralising _____	47
2. Besant _____	25	5. Flippant and _____	48
On the ‘laws’ of fiction		colloquial writing
and other matters		6. Self-discipline _____	49
1. Writing engagingly _____	25	7. Brevity, simplicity, etc _	51
2. Sympathy and _____	27	8. Illusion, truth and _____	53
writing		writing
3. Selection in writing _____	27	9. Realising the _____	53
4. Elevation of mind _____	27	author’s conception
5. ‘Laws’ of writing _____	28	10. Using foreign words _____	54
Key propositions _____	35	11. Digression _____	55
3. Conrad _____	37	12. Life experience _____	55
On bringing light to truth		and writing
and other matters		13. Amusement/humour _	56
1. Bringing light _____	37	in writing to truth		14. The ethics of writing _	57
		15. Sympathy _____	57
		Key propositions _____	59

5. De Maupassant _____ 61

*On honesty, simplicity
and other matters*

1. Originality _____ 61
2. Expectations as _____ 62 to form
3. The pursuit of truth ____ 63
4. Detachment _____ 64
5. Exactness and _____ 65 carefulness
6. Using simple _____ 67 vocabulary

Key propositions _____ 68

6. De Quincey _____ 71

On style and other matters

1. Style and writing _____ 71
2. Why is style _____ 73 important?
3. Writing versus _____ 73 speech
4. Carelessness in _____ 74
writing
5. Media influence on ____ 78 language
6. Unduly long or _____ 80 conditional sentences
7. Using foreign words ____ 81
8. Different aspects _____ 82 of style
9. Punctuation _____ 83
10. Footnotes _____ 84
11. Repetition and _____ 85 brevity

Key propositions _____ 86

7. Forster _____ 89

*On the text as a story
and other matters*

1. Legal texts as stories ____ 89
2. Writing engagingly ____ 90
3. Writing and voice ____ 93
4. Detachment _____ 98
5. Plot and writing _____ 99
6. Writing a conclusion _ 101
7. Different types of _____ 102 writer
8. Patterns in writing ____ 104
and writing models

Key propositions _____ 106

8. Hardy _____ 107

*On sincerity, originality
and other matters*

1. Sincerity _____ 107
2. Originality _____ 108
3. Detachment _____ 110
4. 'Laws' of writing _____ 112
5. Hardy's observations _ 114 summarised
6. Carelessness in _____ 115
writing

Key propositions _____ 116

9. The Hawthornes _____ 119

*On theme, tone, truth, the task of writing and
other matters*

1. Plainness and _____ 119 simplicity
2. Tone _____ 120
3. Morality and writing _ 122
4. Writing models and ____ 124 formulae

5. The steps to writing ___ 125
a text
 6. The 'art' of writing ___ 127
 7. Writing powerfully ___ 128
 8. Transcendent text ___ 129
 9. Types of writer _____ 130
 10. Some common _____ 133 failures in writing
 11. Legal texts as _____ 139 national literature
 12. Writing engagingly ___ 140
 13. Condescension and ___ 145 children
 14. What makes a _____ 147 good writer?
- Key propositions _____ 149
- 10. Hazlitt _____ 151
*On pedantry, insight, jargon
and other matters*
1. Pedantry _____ 151
 2. Reading other texts ___ 152
 3. Jargon _____ 154
 4. Using foreign words ___ 157
- Key propositions _____ 158
- 11. James _____ 159
On the art and duty of writing, humour and other matters
1. The 'art' of writing ___ 159
 2. Task of the writer _____ 162
 3. Amusement, _____ 163 humour and didacticism
in writing
 4. Superabundant _____ 167 judgments
 5. Writing engagingly ___ 172
6. Avoiding _____ 177 ornamental writing
 7. Writing engagingly, ___ 179
recounting facts
 8. Types of writing _____ 181
 9. Style and freedom ___ 185
in writing
- Key propositions _____ 187
- 12. Stevenson _____ 189
On composition, pattern, sound and other matters
1. Vocabulary, word ___ 189
choice and grammar
 2. Composing a text ___ 198
 3. Style _____ 200
 4. Key elements of style _ 203
 5. Patterns in writing ___ 204
and writing models
 6. 'Sound' in writing ___ 205
 7. What to include _____ 207 or omit
- Key propositions _____ 209
- 13. Trollope _____ 211
On literary quality, truth and the 'rules' of writing
1. Artistry and writing ___ 211
 2. Honesty in writing ___ 212
 3. 'Laws' of writing _____ 215
- Key propositions _____ 218

14. Woolf _____ 221

*On quality in writing,
'rules' of writing and
other matters*

1. Weaknesses of _____ 221
modern writing
2. Lifeless writing _____ 237
3. Forms of writing _____ 237
4. Honesty and writing _ 239
5. Stream of _____ 240 consciousness
6. Concision in writing _ 243
7. 'Rules' of writing _____ 244
8. Long words and _____ 244 opening words
9. Writing engagingly ___ 245

Key propositions _____ 252

Afterword: Towards _____ 255
a code of good legal writing

Appendix: Writing for _____ 269
the young and vulnerable

Table of cases _____ 283

Index _____ 285

About the author _____ 291

About Globe Law _____ 293 and Business